

To whom it may concern, Satellite radio with its traffic and weather channels provides an invaluable tool for the traveling business person. Being in unfamiliar cities with no knowledge of what local radio station offers, satellite radio provides instantly what I need to find out what to expect. Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160 and support satellite radio's ability to provide the kind of programming that we, consumers are requesting.